INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Slim Girl Sweets

Slim Girl Sweets is your guide to healthy, high-protein desserts and snacks that satisfy your sweet cravings while helping you stay on track with your goals.

Inside, you'll find 15 simple recipes that are all dairy-free, protein-focused and easy to make at home. These are the kind of sweet treats you can enjoy without feeling like you've ruined your routine or gone off plan.

Each recipe has been created to feel indulgent, but still support a balanced, healthy lifestyle. Think chocolatey snacks, fruity treats, easy bakes and sweet bites that actually taste good, while helping you feel nourished, confident and in control.

This ebook is for the girls who love dessert, but still want to feel lean, energised and consistent.

Because staying on track doesn't mean cutting out the foods you love. It means making them work for you.

Love,
Kassy x

PROTEIN

18g

CARBS

28g

FATS

SERVES 2

INGREDIENTS

For the apples

- 2 apples, sliced
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- 1 tbsp agave syrup or honey
- Optional: 1 tbsp chopped nuts or raisins for serving

For the protein yogurt dip

- 150g high-protein plant-based yogurt (such as soy yogurt)
- 1 scoop vanilla protein powder
- 1 tsp honey or agave syrup
- 1/2 tsp cinnamon
- 1/2 tsp vanilla extract (optional)

METHOD

- 1 Preheat your air fryer to 180°C (350°F).
- 2 In a bowl, toss the apple slices with the cinnamon and agave syrup or honey until evenly coated.
- 3 Arrange the apple slices in a single layer in the air fryer basket.
- 4 Air fry for 8–10 minutes, shaking the basket halfway through, until the apples are tender and lightly caramelised.
- 5 Meanwhile, make the protein yogurt dip by mixing the yogurt, protein powder, honey or agave syrup, cinnamon and vanilla extract (if using) in a small bowl until smooth.
- 6 Serve the warm apples with the protein yogurt dip on the side, topped with chopped nuts or raisins if desired.

NOTES

These air fried cinnamon apples are naturally sweet, quick to make and perfect as a healthy dessert, snack or breakfast topping. The protein yogurt dip adds extra creaminess and protein, making this recipe more satisfying. Adjust the amount of agave syrup or honey to suit your preferred sweetness.

- 1/2 cup plant milk
- 1 cup oats
- 1 scoop protein powder
- 1 tbsp chia seeds
- 2 tbsp cocoa powder
- 1 tsp baking powder, optional
- Chopped dark chocolate raspberry, optional

METHOD

- 1 Preheat the oven to 180°C.
- 2 Soak the dates in hot water for 5–10 minutes if they are firm, then drain.
- 3 Blend the bananas, dates, plant milk and egg until smooth.
- 4 Add the oats, protein powder, chia seeds, cocoa powder and baking powder.
- 5 Blend or mix until combined.
- 6 Fold through the chopped dark chocolate raspberry if using.

AFFILIATE LINKS PAGE

These are some of my go-to products that I personally use and love. They make it easier to stay consistent, hit your protein goals, and keep things simple day to day.

Everything linked below fits perfectly with this meal plan and my lifestyle.

My Favourite Collagen (Smoothies & Baking)

https://elavate.com/KASSY

This is my go-to collagen that I add into smoothies, oats, and baking. It mixes really well and is an easy way to increase protein without changing the taste or texture.

High-Protein / Matcha Collagen

https://www.feelreformed.com/KASSYALICE

I love this one for an extra protein boost, especially in matcha or morning drinks. It's perfect if you want something a little different but still aligned with your goals.

On-the-Go Protein Bars

http://shop.thegutstuff.com/KASSYALICEE

These are perfect for busy days or travelling. Super convenient and great to keep your protein intake up when you're out and about.

Using these isn't essential, but they're simple additions that can make your routine easier and more enjoyable.
